Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "handouts" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter the gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

We Have!

Always contended for and maintain it is a fact that there is a higher order of intelligence evinced in the business of general merchandise by the people in this and nearby counties than most anywhere else. You will find few persons who do their shopping in Mayville who believe that $1.00 will buy a $12 suit of clothes. Our many years experience goes to show that people want good goods, and for which they are willing to pay a fair price. Our 1898 spring business proves that the higher the class of goods the readier they sell. Our beautiful Black and Blue Serge Suits (we sell them at $12) have bonDED into wonderful great favor with our good dressers. We have a beautiful line of them. The weather is getting right for our

A Small Scrap.

A few evenings since Isaac Cobb of the Sixth Ward and John Bradford, an employe at the coal docks, got into an argument and a few choice words were exchanged, but they were separated without doing each other any damage.

This morning at 7 o'clock they again met and renewed the old quarrel, Bradford striking Cobb with a brick which he was carrying.

They thereupon clinched and Cobb, getting the best of the encounter, Bradford pleaded that he had been sick and was in no condition to fight.

The hostilities at this juncture ceased, with the understanding that when Bradford is in proper shape they will try it again.

A CORRECTION.

Jimmie Murray is Not Dead—Manager of Seeker Heard From Him.

Some issues ago we published the notice of the suicide in Chicago of Jimmie Murray who was piano player at the Electric Park last year.

The news came to us through a friend who read it in The New York Clipper.

It now turns out that another man by that name was meant, for Mr. Lew Seeker received a letter from "Our Jimmie" yesterday asking for a position.

It is not often one has the unique pleasure of reading his obituary notice.

We have no intention of changing the wording of that notice. It was good and true—fitting the deed.

It is only to withdraw the part relating to mortuary dealings this correction is made.

We are glad to know Jimmie is still on earth.

May it be for many years and may they increase in happiness and personal joys until called hence through weight of time.

Friday's Cash Sale

Umbrella Talks!

An umbrella in the hand is worth two in the store—when that store is blocks away and its raining torrents. There are two kinds of umbrellas, one you buy, the other you borrow. If uncomplimentary facts may be recorded we believe the latter kind most popular.

In selecting an umbrella look to the name of the maker. That's the secret of our successful umbrella business. We buy of manufacturers who guarantee their goods to us and we in turn guarantee them to our customers. Low prices alone are no attraction. It's not getting things cheap, it's getting good things cheap. Everything here is cheap—some are very cheap, but they had to be something more than cheap, first. That's the strong point in the umbrellas we offer Friday. Its merit, style and value for the money everybody wants even in umbrellas, and if you come here you'll get it. We won't insist upon purchasing. We won't urge you, but the worth in the umbrellas will. Some people object to parachute pants, but the kind we'll have Friday will be welcomed by all as the chief coin-clothes of the city. Corolla Silk Umbrellas, steel rods, slender frames, silk tassels and cases, handles of many patterns, choice for Friday only $1; after that the regular $1.50. Don't think the big difference between sale and regular price represents our profit. We don't get 50 per cent. on umbrellas. We've gone into the costs on these as the wisest advertising of the season.
